

2022 Chapel Hill Expert Survey – Israel

Welcome and Instructions

Welcome!

Dear colleague,

We are contacting you because you have been identified as an expert on political parties, public opinion, elections, or legislative behavior in Israel. Our goal is to collect comparable estimates on political party positions across the world. This follows previous studies which CHES has conducted since 1999.

We would like you to answer all questions, however you have the option to skip questions or parties unfamiliar to you. We would rather that you return an incomplete questionnaire than no questionnaire at all.

All responses are anonymous, and no identifiable personal data is collected in this survey. Data will be treated in the strictest confidence, under the terms of the GDPR and it will be used solely for the purposes of the CHES survey.

Queries can be sent to the Survey Administrator, Roi Zur (roi.zur@essex.ac.uk)

Thank you in advance for sharing your expertise with us!

We would like you to reflect on the position of the leadership of national parties in Israel over the course of 2022. The leadership of a political party consists of the party's chair, the party presidium, and the parliamentary party (as distinct from the party base or local and regional party officials).

Below you will find the full names of national parties, in English and Hebrew.

| Full Name | Hebrew Name |

Ideology

We now turn to a few questions on the ideological positions of political parties in 2022.

Q1: Parties can be classified in terms of their stance on ECONOMIC ISSUES such as privatization, taxes, regulation, government spending, and the welfare state. Parties on the economic left want government to play an active role in the economy. Those on the economic right want a reduced role for government.

Q18: Parties can be classified in terms of their stance on the tension between “Democratic” and “Jewish” state. Parties on the “Democratic” extreme believe in equal rights and treatment to all Israelis, whether Jewish or not, and elimination of the special status of Judaism in public life (such as the law of return and the status quo agreement). Parties on the “Jewish” extreme believe that Israel is the homeland of the Jewish people, the Jewish culture should guide public life, and that the state should be governed by the Torah laws (Medinat Halacha). During 2022, where did the parties stand on DEMOCRATIC VS. JEWISH ISSUES?

In the next section of the survey, we'd like your evaluation of a few party characteristics.

Q23: Some political parties take the position that 'THE PEOPLE' should have the final say on the most important issues, for example, by voting directly in referendums.
